About

Pensum Display is the triangular and spiky packmate of text monster Pensum Pro. Designed to be used for anything big and for nothing that isn't big, Pensum Display is a sharp, high contrast design ready to take on display and headline uses. Distilled from the text-focussed Pensum Pro, Pensum Display embraces extremes. Triangular serifs, spikier detailing, and tighter spacing, Pensum Display brings dynamism to short text in posters, headers, titles, or anywhere where its deep ink traps and high contrast can work their magic.

From the extremely thin styles, stylish and fashionable, to the strong black with its striking tension between thick and thin, Pensum Display's nine weights offer a broad spectrum of expression. When you need emphasis, the matching italics, curvy and deeply ink-trapped, can set heads spinning.

With more than 800 glyphs and lots of OpenType features, Pensum Display can fulfil your every display need. For lovers of fine typography, the small caps are designed wider than the caps and punctuation for case and small-cap sensitive variations are available. Pensum Display is Adobe Latin 3 encoded, giving a wide range of flexibility in Latin language support.

THE RECENT SUDDEN DEATH of Sir Charles Baskerville, whose name has been mentioned as the probable Liberal candidate for mid-devon at the next election, has cast a gloom over the county. Though SIR CHARLES (*1856) had resided at Baskerville Hall for a comparatively short period his amiability of character and extreme generosity had won the affection and respect of all who had been brought into contact with him (1856 — 1912). In these days of nouveaux riches it is refreshing to find a case where the scion of an old county family which has fallen upon evil days is able to make his own fortune and to bring it back with him to restore the fallen grandeur of his line. SIR CHARLES, as is well known, made
